I am the fourteenth volume of THE LANITE. My staff has burned the midnight oil as a manifestation of its earnest desire to mold me into a volume which will be highly cherished by my possessor.

It is my purpose to serve as an inspiration to all who may use me, that you may maintain throughout life that burning desire "To Be And Not To Seem."

The 1949 LANITE

The Staff, on which Seniors and Juniors are equally represented, has labored arduously in its effort to present herein a complete view (not in detail but in scope) of our dearly loved Institution, revealing the past, the present, and the future. Trusting that the historical effect will be informative and that the retentive value may be great, we have reserved no energy in bringing forth this volume, which we hope will become a treasured adjunct to your library.

We, therefore, commend these our best efforts, with fear and timidity, that you will not realize that there is always a chasm between actual knowledge and absolute truth.

Hoping that you will find abundant pleasure as you turn these pages, we, hereby, unreservedly acknowledge our sincere appreciation to all who gave their support in making this edition what it is. Especially are we grateful for the cooperative spirit in which our advisers, Mrs. Susie P. O'Daniels, Mrs. Grace L. Johnson and Dean R. H. Sewell, so ably served.
DEDICATION

Mrs. Susie P. O'Daniels, A.B., M.A.

Persons to whom dedications are made are usually due much more credit, praise, and appreciation than mere dedicatory words can possibly express. We know, therefore, that these meager words are not sufficiently adequate to express the love and appreciation we have for our sponsor, Mrs. Susie P. O'Daniels.

We feel that our beloved advisor navigated us safely through our stormy academic sea at Dear Old Lane, and it is for these valuable services rendered that we so dedicate this volume.

1882 HISTORICAL SKETCH 1949

The yesteryears of the existence of Lane College are filled with eventful achievements, which perpetuated the development of a first-class institution of higher learning from a small "C.M.E. High School."

Founded in 1882 by a host of industrious church leaders, Lane College is the product of an outstanding churchman, Bishop Isaac Lane, the principal founder. The first school sessions were held by Miss Jennie E. Lane. Rev. C. H. Phillips served as the second principal.

Following the adoption of the appellation "Lane Institute," Dr. T. F. Saunders became the first president. During his six years of administration Lane Institute became Lane College (1893).

Rev. J. A. Bray, who later became a C.M.E. Bishop, succeeded Dr. Saunders in 1903. He served Lane in the presidential office for four years.

In 1907, the Founder's son, Dr. I. F. Lane, was appointed to the president's chair. It was during his thirty-seven years of leadership that Lane College experienced its greatest developmental period.

In 1938, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools accepted Lane into its fold, bestowing upon it a "B" rating.

Following the death of President Lane in December 1944, the Dean of the College was appointed to serve the college as its Acting President. In this capacity Dean P. R. Shy was very efficient as he labored arduously in spanning the chasm which separated Dr. Lane's administration from that of his presidential successor.

Dr. D. S. Yarbrough became the chief executive in 1945, being inaugurated in March. 1946. Dr. Yarbrough, with the benefit of broad administrative experience, led the College through three years of progressive service.

The College's present president came to the institution in the summer of 1948. Though he's been in office for less than a year, Pres. I. H. White has manifested plans for a "new program" of improvement. Under his dynamic leadership, Lane College is now at the threshold of an "A" rating. The recently launched "Endowment Fund and Improvement Drives" will cover a seven-year period; but during the past few months, more than a thousand dollars has already been raised.

Today, the administration, faculty, students, and friends stand united as the concerted movement toward "Class A" progress. That the students of yesteryear, today, and of the years to come, may enjoy the full rights and privileges of the typical American student, LANE COLLEGE MARCHES ON!!!

IN RETROSPECT
THE FOUNDER

Bishop Isaac Lane, D.D., LL.D.

The memory of Bishop Isaac Lane, who, as a result of his unflagging endeavors and indefatigable labors in the establishing of our beloved Lane College, shines brightly in the minds and hearts of all the College's sons, daughters, and friends.

Born under the bondage of slavery, he was ever determined to do some work for the good of his church, his race, and his country. Lane College, and those who represent the institution, now stand as symbols of the manifestations of the achievement of Bishop Lane during his one hundred three years of life.

THE FIRST PRESIDENT

Dr. Thomas F. Saunders

Dr. T. F. Saunders, a member of the Memphis Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was appointed as the first president of Lane College (the Lane Institute) in 1887. His seven years of service were very valuable and always highly appreciated by the Board of Trustees.

During President Saunders' administration the College Department was organized and the institution's name was changed to Lane College.
THE SECOND PRESIDENT

Bishop J. A. Bray, M.A., LL.D.

In 1903, Rev. James A. Bray was elected to the presidency of Lane College. President Bray, who later became Bishop in the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, served the college for four years, during which time the present Administration Building was erected.

THE THIRD PRESIDENT

Dr. J. F. Lane, M.A., Ph.D.

Dr. James F. Lane, son of Bishop Isaac Lane, became the president of Lane College in May, 1907. During his thirty-seven years as chief administrator, Dr. Lane witnessed the College as it was developed into the modern institution of higher learning which it is today. Dr. Lane will ever be remembered as a scholar and a gentleman.
THE FOURTH PRESIDENT

Dr. Dean S. Yarbrough, M.A., M.H., Ph.D.

Dr. D. S. Yarbrough was appointed to the presidential office in December 1945. That year being the first year of the post-war era, Dr. Yarbrough witnessed a continuous flow of World War II veterans as they came to resume and to begin their college careers. Thus the largest enrollment in the college’s history existed under his administration. The Fourth President was succeeded by President J. H. White in 1948.

Lane College now stands at the crossroad. We need your interest and your support to make a good college better. Our interest must be mutual in making our college an "A" rated institution in all phases of its work.

It is a fact worthy of noting that as the social order becomes more complicated and the economic, religious, and political interest becomes more complex, the greater are the demands that are made upon our colleges and universities. New situations and new relationships, brought on by scientific progress and improvements and modern inventions, have made educational procedures, in form and in substance, a very different thing.

—President J. H. White.

The GRADUATING CLASS
GRADUATING CLASS HISTORY

With the advent of peace following World War II ninety-nine young people journeyed from their respective homes to an institution of higher learning, Lane College. These young people realized the value of an education which is advantageous in bringing about better relations between the nation and peoples of the world. They knew that through their curricula they would learn the habit and custom of people of other nations, and even their own neighbors; they would learn the many functions of how people think and why they do the things they do, or, for the sake of brevity, they would learn the reasons, causes, and effects of many factors facing man today. Only this knowledge pursued by a majority of the people of the world can insure the lasting peace that these young people are in quest of. Peace can only be insured by the masses of the world possessing a knowledge such as these young people are seeking at Lane College.

In this great class of wide awake energetic young people we saw among them students who showed potentiality of being leaders, and the class saw fit to choose them as members of the official family: President, Robert Evans Smith; Secretary, Jimmie Ruth Caldwell; Assistant Secretary, Beatrice Price; Treasurer, Wyatt Jackson; Sergeant-at-Arms, Floyd Cunningham; Member of the Student Council, Randolph Estwick.

In the year of 1947 we found many servicemen returning to the campus. We elected the following persons to be the officials of the class: President, Percy Houston; Vice President, Lendell Aiston; Secretary, Clara Nixson; Treasurer, Garlan Johnson; Chaplain, Benjamin Hardy; Student Council Representatives, Albert Neal, Randolph Estwick.

Our class has participated in many of the extra-curricular activities such as the Student Council, Pan-Hellenic Council, Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society, Football, Basketball, and many others. We also have the distinct honor of having one of our members being crowned "Miss Lane" of 1949, none other than Miss Alberta Neal.

We are proud to be the first class to graduate under the capable and profound leadership of President White. May he be endowed with the many blessings on high and be successful in his program for the improvement and development of Lane College.

CLASS SONG

I
When evening shadows softly glow;
We dream of you and then we know
Love's like the flame of a twinkling star,
Burning and yearning from afar.

II
It's love that you and I have known,
And now, dear one, we must dream alone:
But what does it matter when sunsets glow?
We'll still dream of you and then we'll know.

Chorus
Love's like the soft winds that
Blow beneath the moon,
The restless sea and the sleepy lagoon.
Like balmy breezes and wintry snows.
In the evening shade—we dream of thee so
Let's blend our love song and sing it to the stars;
We'll love thee today and forever.

Benjamin E. Hardy, Composer

CLASS POEM

Ode To Lane

Fair Lane, we love thee, that we know;
Our love for thee, we'll always show.
We'll keep the torch of Lane held high.
That others, your fame, will not deny.

'Tis but a pleasure to remember,
Those years replete with joy and splendor.
When first we caught the college gleam.
And sought to make our aims supreme.

Striving, e'er striving, with courage bold.
For something better than even gold.
We kept thy aims and precepts dearly,
Hoping to see our way more clearly.

Its settled now, and hence we find.
Our dreams are o'er, and left behind.
But as a light upon a hill.
Fair Lane will light our pathway still.

Every journey started has an end.
Farewell dear Lane, Farewell dear friend.
As skies e'er hold their golden hue.
We will love and e'er cherish you.

Fair Lane, we love thee, love thee well.
It is of thee we love to tell
Of friendly years of college life.
Of college years with pleasure rise;
Of years we could be help employ
Our minds in ecstasy when soon
We would begin this happy tune.

Long may our loved college live
For we our zealous help will give.
And give it too with might and main
To that dear school we love, our Lane
When cast upon life's rugged sea,
We then will turn and think of thee.
We'll think of days we spent with you.
Of days we cheered the Red and Blue.

When troubles rise to dim our way,
We'll know no other words to say
And say them over and over again.
We love thee dearest, fairest Lane
And may our loved college live
For we our zealous help will give.
And give it too with might and main
To that dear school we love, our Lane.

MISS LANITE OF 1949

Miss Alberta Neal excelled and emerged victoriously in the "Miss Lanite of 1949" Contest, sponsored by the 1949 Lanite Staff.

Respectively representing the Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshman Classes—Miss Alberta Neal, Miss Addie Murphy, Miss Gloria Gardner, and Miss Shirley Arnold competed for the honor on the basis of sales of subscriptions to the 1949 Lanite.

Miss Neal was crowned by the Editor-in-Chief of the 1949 Lanite, James H. Utey, at the First Annual "Miss Lanite Coronation," as the runner-up. Miss Murphy looks on. The charming winner of the contest is very active in extracurricular activities. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the secretary of the Little Theatre, a member of Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society, the president of the Pan-Hellenic Council, the secretary of the Student Council.

An honor student, "Miss Lanite of 1949" was elected as the graduating girl who is most likely to succeed.

Realizing the necessity of the continued pursuit of higher education, these persons are enrolled at Lane College as Special Students. As teachers in the public schools of West Tennessee, they seek to broaden themselves so that they may better play their roles in molding the lives of the children enrolled in their respective schools.

Following five-day school weeks at their posts, these forty-seven teacher-students attend classes at Lane College under the Saturday School Program.

Through more than four calendar years are required to graduate under the Program, the students realize that it matters not how late the date, but HOW and WHY.
FOREIGN STUDENTS

The four foreign students studying at Lane College are indicative of the fact that there is a concerted effort among the peoples of the earth to formulate "One World."

Hailing from British Guiana, South America, Randolph R. Estwick and Jagat-Pal-Persaud are graduating as the result of four years of study in preparation for the study of medicine.

Gustava Bobb, also from British Guiana, is a Sophomore pre-dental student. He serves as a clerical assistant in the treasurer's office.

Hector Burgardht Hamilton, from Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, Africa, has proved himself to be readily adaptable to novel environments. He is a very popular and highly talented Freshman.
STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized on Lane College Campus in 1945. The purpose of the organization is to develop in the student body a wise and intelligent self control; to aid and insist upon the progress of the school; to give the students an opportunity for self expression and democratic experiences; to further the feeling of trust between the faculty and student body; and to have charge of such extra-curricular activities as may fall within its realm.

The Little Theatre, formerly the Dramatic Club, is composed of a small but active group of students who seek to develop their individual talents and abilities and off the stage. In so doing they provide entertainment to the public, as they make dramatic presentations of varied types.
THE FRED NEELY ENSEMBLE

It has been said that music is the fourth essential of life. Thus, the Fred Neely orchestra provides this significant element for the listening pleasure of fellow Lanites. The band is composed of highly talented students who, through constant and regular practice, develop their musical abilities to the maximum.

The band provides the musical atmosphere for the presentation of talent and variety shows, plays, skits, etc.

The Young Men's Christian Association offers splendid opportunities for non-denominational fellowship on the campus. The scope of its program includes cooperative programs and projects with local churches, colleges, and civic organizations. The Lane College Y.M.C.A. is a member of the National and the Southern Regional Student Christian Associations.

William C. Jackson resigned as "Mr. Y.M.C.A." for this year, as the result of his outstanding work in bringing new members into the Association.

The Pan-Hellenic Council was organized on Lane College campus in 1948. The purpose of the organization is to promote the spirit of intra-fraternal unity by standardizing minimum scholastic requirements for candidates that apply for membership in various Greek Letter Organizations and affiliated clubs. This is done by fostering programs which seek to uphold the highest ideals of manhood and womanhood, and by directing our efforts against all activities that are prejudicial to the best interest of our respective organizations, the College, and society at large.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority had its origin in Miner's Hall on the campus of Howard University in the winter of 1908. On Saturday, March 4, 1929, two chapters were established on the campus of Lane College. The two chapters were: Gamma Alpha Omega and Beta Chi.

Beta Chi has grown rapidly since that time, both in strength and number. Under the able leadership of such officers as those listed, Beta Chi has done much to uphold the standards of Alpha Kappa Alpha.

It was on February 21, 1930 when Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., increased its membership with the birth of Beta Pi Chapter at Lane College. Fifteen stalwart young men were accepted as charter members. Brothers J. T. Beck and Bertram Caruthers being sponsors. Beta Pi upholds the fraternity aims: mantle deeds, scholarship, and love for all mankind; as it enquires in its annual activities. In the week-long "Education and Citizenship Campaign," visits are made to numerous high schools for the purpose of instilling in the minds of young Americans the need for "Adequate and Effective Education" and "First Class Citizenship for All Americans." Other activities advocate the maximum cultivation of attitudes, talents, and abilities for the rendering of unlimited service to our dear school, Lane College; to the community and to all humanity.

The Pyramid Club is a pledge club of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. The young women are selected on the basis of their moral, scholarly, and spiritual standards, striving earnestly to reach the goal. They participate in the activities and curriculum in a diligent manner as they are offered by Lane College.

On February 18, 1938, five dynamic women of Lane College saw "the bright gleam of Delta's vision" and Beta Chi became a chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Founder's Day celebration, Jabberwock and other activities added to the enthusiastic plans to go into any task set before us with a zealous spirit; for our desire is to make Delta Sigma Theta Sorority remain perpetually a beacon light to Lanites—Jacksonians—and the world.
The Scroller Club was organized on Lane College Campus in 1939 prior to the establishment of Beta Lambda Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. The purpose of establishing the Scroller Club was to orient the aspirants with the activities, history, traditions, and purpose of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

HAIL THE QUEEN !!

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL QUEEN

The trumpets blare and the drums roll and behold the queen!!! To Miss Ruth White must go the Dragons share of praise and admiration as well as the crown for having emerged triumphant in the Homecoming Drive sponsored by the Student Council.

Through sheer hard work and loyalty to her class and school, Miss White helped make the Homecoming Drive a great success.

So to you, Miss Ruth White, we, the entire student body of Lane College, as well as your junior class, doff our hats.

To the contestants, Miss Agnes Fournier, Senior class, Mrs. Berdie Clark Walker, Sophomore class, and Miss Constance O'Kea, Freshman class, who started out with the hope of becoming queen, we give praise and admiration. Although they were unsuccessful in the end, without their help the drive would not have been a success.

COACHING STAFF

Beck  Stone  Clemons  Battle

1. William Wild Bill Battle joined Lane College coaching staff in 1948. He was voted All-American Quarterback while a student at Lane College. He now serves as backfield coach.

2. Coach E. J. Clemmons compiled an enviable Southern Conference record since he has been head football coach at Lane College. He is one of the best coaches in the Southern Conference.

3. Herman E. Stone is a new addition to the coaching staff of the Dragons. He serves as assistant backfield coach.

4. J. T. Beck is rendering invaluable service as line coach of the Dragons. He is also head coach of the Track Team.

5. Julian Bell is also a new addition to the coaching staff of the Dragons. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan, has served as head coach at Fisk University, and is now head of the Physical Education Department of Lane College.
FOOTBALL TEAM

SEASON'S RECORD

The Lane College Dragons was the second best team in the Southern Conference at the close of the season, although the Dragons won eight of its conference games and tied one.

Florida State A. & M. College was the conference champions. Lane's lone defeat of the year during the regular season came against Arkansas State College in Martin Stadium, Memphis, Tenn., by a score of 28 to 12. It was a good game, despite the fact that the Dragons were beaten. At the half, the score was 13 to 7 in favor of Lane College, but the large Arkansas team bounded back to give Lane its first and only defeat of the season.

Captain Jackson

Bethel

Co-Captain Reeves

Thomas "Shortie" Bethel is the greatest scat back in the Southern Conference. He is known to run back punts for long gains against the opposing teams.

John Reeves is one of the best linemen that has been on Lane College Campus in many years. He is a graduating senior.

William Jackson is one of the best ends in the history of Lane College. He and John Reeves were the captain and co-captain, respectively, of the Dragons for the year.

Wyatt Lane is one of the Dragons' powerful and hard running backfield men. Lane is a cool performer, and is always there ploughing hard for that necessary extra yardage.

CAGERS IN ACTION

1. Julius Jones is used as a utility reserve. His ability of taking the ball off the backboard was a great asset to the team. Home town—Ripley, Tennessee.

2. James Scott—"Scottie". While his regular position was center, he could switch over and play any other position in basketball. He was the second leading scorer on the squad. Home town—Whiteville, Tennessee.

3. Ed Baker is used as a utility reserve and is known by his teammates as "scrummage."

4. Edward Worthy is one of the fine prospects of the Lane College basketball squad. He has three more years for competition. Home town—Whiteville, Tennessee.

5. Charles Taylor is one of the better guards in the Southern Conference. Home town—Somerville, Tennessee.

6. Frederick Nealey has shown to the people in Jackson that he is a great sport lover. He has shown great possibility as a basketball player. Home town—Chicago, Illinois.

7. Jimmy Spicer is used as a utility reserve. Spicer can hit from anywhere. We must give credit to the great game that Spicer played as forward. Home town—Kansas City, Kansas.

8. John Worthing, a freshman from Lexington, Tennessee, has shown great possibility as a basketball player.

9. Calvin Logan, a former member of the A. & I. Basketball Squad, has possibility of becoming one of Lane College's fine players. Home town—Brownsville, Tennessee.

10. Richard Evans is the highest scorer on the squad. His ability to hit from anywhere contributed greatly to the success of the squad. Home town—Kansas City, Kansas.

11. Otis Floyd can best be described as a trick shot artist. He will be remembered around the schools in the Southern Conference. Home town—Selmer, Tennessee.
The Dragons opened their basketball season against the Lemoyne Magicians of Memphis, Tennessee with a very impressive victory.

In spite of the fact that Lane's Basketball Team was made up primarily of new men, Lane fans have no cause to apologize for its record on the basketball court this season.

Coach Bell has done a fine job with the new and limited material at his disposal. We doff our hats to him. The season record is as follows:
