DEDICATION

Bishop James Arthur Hamlett, M.A., D.D., LL.D.

In deciding upon to whom this Lanite was to be dedicated no opposition was received against the person chosen. This was partially due to the fact that no other person is more worthy of it than this man of whom we speak. He has served as Chairman of the Lane College Trustee Board for two decades and his interest and devotion has always been with us.

This is but a small way of acknowledging our appreciation to not only a leader in the C.M.E. Church but to a leader of humanity.

Therefore to Bishop J. Arthur Hamlett it is with humble gratitude that we, the members of the Class of 1951, dedicate this Annual to you.

"The Lanite Staff of 1951"
THE VOICE OF LANE COLLEGE

Sixty-nine years ago I uttered my first cry; it was for the uplift of people throughout the Southland, and it came from the soul of Bishop Isaac Lane. During my infancy in 1882, I was known as the C.M.E. High School, and in my nursery days, my good dame was Miss Jennie Lane. But I grew and grew, and by 1883, I was ready for the big kindergarten. The state of Tennessee recognized my possibilities and chartered me under the name of Lane Institute.

With such a name my aspirations mounted, and my desire to serve rose to large proportions. In 1885, at the age of 13, I felt the growing pains of adolescence, I felt the strength of adolescence and called myself a college. With my new title, “Lane College,” I became aware of the need of a President, and in 1903 that high privilege became the honor of the Rev. J. A. Bray of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Bray’s term ended in 1907.

Dr. Lane carried me to unexpected heights. His leadership marked a period of expansion. I enlarged my campus and constructed modern dormitories for my students. This advancement was not without struggle, for I needed funds for my buildings and for the promotion of my collegiate curricula. Conscious of my worth and confident that I was holding a candle in this corner of the Southland, I summoned all the courage I had and faced the great Education Foundations of America. My virtue had not been proven to these Boards, and therefore, they made conditional grants to me. Nevertheless, my people and the benevolent M.E. Church South stood by, and in 1923, the condition of the General Education Board of New York was met, and I was the proud possessor of $50,000. In 1936, I knocked at the door of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and asked for accreditation. A happy day it was in my life when in 1949 the Southern Association granted me an “A” rating. Again, I lifted my head and saw visions of the future.

After 37 years as my leader, Dr. Lane passed. He had become so much a part of me that I paused to drop a tear, but when my beloved Dean Shy took my hand and said, “March on,” I faced the future and advanced. From Dean Shy as acting President in 1945, I have come through various stages to my present state.

Today I face a new horizon. Chester A. Kirkendoll is standing on its brink. He is flanked and supported with a loyal faculty and student body. As I view that towering figure silhouetted against the sky, I cast aside crippling fear, and with confidence walk hand in hand with the courageous, and consecrated President Kirkendoll.

THE FOUNDER

Bishop Isaac Lane, D.D., LL.D.

The memory of Bishop Isaac Lane, who, as a result of his untiring endeavors and indefatigable labors in the establishing of our beloved Lane College shines, brightly in the minds and hearts of all the College’s sons, daughters, and friends.

Born under the bondage of slavery he was ever determined to do some work for the good of his church, his race, and his country. Lane College, and those who represent the institution, now stands as symbols of the manifestations of the achievement of Bishop Lane during his one hundred three years of life.
Greetings to the Class of '51.

Another milestone reached! The administrative officers, faculty members, and students salute you upon completion of your program of study at Lane College. As you join her many sons and daughters on the gridiron of life, we ask only that you quit yourselves as men and women of the Lane heritage. Lane College takes pride in her individualized higher educational program, through which she seeks to achieve the complete and balanced growth of each student. The college trusts that its philosophy of education, along with your enriching experiences here on the campus, has fitted you in knowledge, skill, capacity, and character for a long tenure of fruitful service in your chosen field of labor.

The best wishes of the "Lane" family go with you always.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 13, 1947, one hundred sixty young people met at Lane College to join others in the search for higher education. These young people realized the value of an education which is advantageous in bringing about better relationships between the nations and the peoples of the world.

It didn’t take them long to learn that life here at Lane was somewhat of a stage where everyone has a starring role and as the days passed our hearts were heavy and we wondered if we would ever get to be a glorified Junior or a dignified Senior. We realized that peace could only be insured by the masses of the world possessing a knowledge such as these young people were seeking at Lane College.

In this great class of wide awake energetic young people we saw among these students who showed potentiality of being leaders and the class saw fit to choose them as members of the official family.—president, Louis Hurst, secretary Rose Montgomery, and treasurer, Collin T. Bonds.

The year of 1948 finds many of these young people returning along with others who transferred from other colleges. The following persons were elected as officers.—president, William Scott, secretary, Rose Montgomery and treasurer, Collin T. Bonds.

As the years passed by and our Junior year came, a number of our classmates participated in many of the extra-curricular activities such as: the Student Council, Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society, Pan-Hellenic Council, Football, Basketball and many other activities.

The year of 1950 came and we began our fourth year in this great educational institution. Miss Dorothy Johnson was chosen as Miss Dragonette and Miss Christine Crues a Miss Lamite.

We, the Graduation Class of 1951, are proud to be the first class to graduate under the capable and efficient leadership of President C. A. Kirkendall.

With our motto: “One Step At a Time But Always Forward,” we end the last chapter of our history as the graduation class of 1951.

“ERE WE DEPART”

Once again in the same hallowed place
We’ve come as did others who passed this way.
To the end of the long and winding path
That we started on one day.

That day so insecure, so afraid,
To face the demands of life
Weary and tided from the inward tears
We vowed there would be no strife.

Brave and untaunted, we must press—
Onward toward our goal
Doing each task, be it great or small,
To help some lonely soul.

We shared each budding moment
Each filled with joys new,
The sacred walls re-echo still
The years we spent with you.

The moments one by one did pass,
The days and years passed too,
But as one fleeting yesterday
We relive these days with you.

With you, Fair Lane, our pride and joy,
Your very name rings true
We’ll strive to keep your colors high
Against the heavenly blue.

When duty calls, we must obey
And from you, Lane, depart,
But as we say “auf-wieder-sein”
We’ll keep you in our hearts.

Our ship is anchored, firmly we stand,
To salute the Red and Blue,
To pledge our hearts, minds, souls, and faith,
For ever and ever to you.

And when we turn to catch a glimpse,
Of memories sweet again
We’ll say with all our might and main
We love thee, Dearest Lane.

Dear Lane
(Class 1951 Song)

I
Dear Lane, Dear Lane, We will ever keep you,
Keep you in our heart, Dear Lane, Dear Lane,
Your name from us will ne'er depart.

II
Dear Lane, Dear Lane, When we're far away upon
Life's rugged Sea, Dear Lane, Dear Lane, Dear Lane,
We'll always Long for Thee.

III
Dear Lane, Dear Lane, Lest we forget all our precious
Memories, Dear Lane, Dear Lane, Dear Lane, We'll always Long for Thee.

Chorus
As years are passing by, and we are growing old,
Your name in our hearts, never will grow cold,

CLASS WILL

We the senior class of Lane College in the City of Jackson, State of Tennessee and County of Madison do hereby make this our last will and testimony.

Nathaniel Terry, our president, leaves to the president of the Junior Class his confused agenda hoping that he can do more with it than he did.

John Gwynn, our Lomite Editor, leaves to the next Editor a Bible to keep him in a straight path.

Alvin Fields leaves his "Little Black Book" to Claxton Halliburton hoping that he can make better use of it than he did.

William Scott, Melvoid Estes, Minnie Slaughter and Johnnie Scott will their disposition to anyone without a disposition hoping at least they will have something to start with.

Bobby Earl James wills his musical ability to Sidney Watson.

Willie T. Jackson wills his basketball ability, particularly shooting, to Augustus Williams.

Vadie Ruth Alexander wills to Miss Clara Denwiddie her ability to act as hostess at the various receptions.

Chanie C. Walker wills Miss Sadie Leigh her camera, so that she can keep snap of the latest happenings in and around Lane.

Lonnis Steele bequeaths to Johnnie Kennedy his ability to organize speech material before making an appearance.

Irene Ganaway wills her ability to come to rehearsals on time and not squawk to Anita Ballard.

Lea Webb wills her nice disposition to Susanne Robinson.

Christens Crues leaves her pleasing personality to Darlene Cleaves.

Rose Montgomery leaves her dramatic ability to Abbie L. Canty.

Frederick Bishop wills his ability to blow a saxophone to Allred Harrison.

Archie D. Sanders leaves his determination to John W. Trotter.

Collin T. Bonds leaves his calmness to Joseph B. Fisher Jr. hoping he will make good use of it.

Evelyn Barksdale wills her ability to make fine clothes to Jacqueline McMillian.

Flynn Saunders wills Fred Long a bow tie, hoping that he can remember to use it at recitals.

Curtis Bingham wills his ability to dress with taste to Charles Smith.

Lucille Williams wills her mathematical ability to anyone so inclined.

Mr. S. A. Buchaman leaves his headaches and prescription for headache pills to the next advisor of the Lomite Staff.

Realizing the necessity of the continued pursuit of higher education, these persons are enrolled at Lane College as special students. As teachers in the public schools of West Tennessee, they seek to broaden themselves so that they may better play their roles in molding the lives of the children enrolled in their respective schools.

Following five days school weeks of their past, these forty-seven teacher-students attend classes at Lane College under the Summer School program.

Though more than four calendar years are required to graduate under the Program, the students realize that it matters not how late the date, but how and why.

The Young Men's Christian Association offers splendid opportunity for non-denominational fellowship on the campus. The scope of the program includes cooperative programs and projects with local churches, colleges and civic organizations. The Lane College Y. M. C. A. is a member of the National and the Southern Regional Student Christian Association.

The Social Science Club is composed of all students who are majoring or intend to major, in the field of Social Science. The club is to supplement the class room work by engaging in discussions and varied activities related to the field as well as to develop a comradeship among students in a common pursuit.

The Lane College Concert Singers, commonly called the "Glee Club," is an important agency on the Campus. Under the direction of Professor Ross C. Clay, the group renders services through its singing for the radio, local groups and groups in neighboring cities. The agency is an example of Christian character for which the college has become a symbol.

Each year the Concert Singers make a tour of some of the leading cities of the middle west spreading a message of good will.

The group appeared in the following places on their Spring Tour of 1951: Peoria, Illinois; Vandalia, Missouri; Kansas City, Missouri; St. Louis, Missouri; Mexico, Missouri; Indianapolis, Indiana; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Omaha, Nebraska; Chicago, Illinois; Detroit, Michigan; Cleveland, Ohio; Dayton, Ohio and Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Perhaps the most well known and most loved of all the numbers in the Lane College Concert Singers' repertoire is "The Fair Maid of the Dawn," known throughout the world simply as "The Quartet" from Giuseppe Verdi's magnificent and stirring opera Rigoletto.

Due to its popularity, this great work remains on the concert programme from year to year, with only its principles changing, never its charm and freshness. Pictured above is the "Quartet" for the season of 1931, each of whom is a veteran in his role except Carty Robinson on the extreme right, tenor, who sings with exceptional brilliance the role of the Duke. Next to him from right to left singing the role of Maddalena is M. Blanche Slaughter who possesses one of the most flexible and colorful mezzo-soprano voices to be found in an aggregation of this kind. Next to her is Alma J. Tidwell, celebrated soprano who interprets the role of Gilda, the laden sweetheart with such understanding and feeling, that she has been acclaimed by music critics all over the country. On the extreme left is W. Hamilton Scott, baritone, who gives the role of Rigoletto a vitality and warmth denoting many hours of rigorous training.

One cannot truthfully say what single factor this work owes its never waning popularity, whether it be the beautiful music or the dramatic appeal of its story, but as long as there are audiences to hear it, it shall remain one of the world's all-time favorites.
PIANO STUDENT
Standing: Miss Rosemond J. Scatterwhite
Seated: Mary Francis Buckley
There are about thirteen pupils in the piano department. Piano lessons are extended to elementary and high school students and to adults in the community.
The usual teaching procedure is followed in this area—scales, techniques, self-expression and interpretation.
We are encouraging more students to register in the department even if his objective is piano playing for pleasure.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC DEPARTMENT
The function of public school music in our department is to clarify the structure, texture, and notation of music in order that the pupil may become more intelligent both as a listener and performer.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority is the youngest of the fraternal organizations, having been organized in 1922. Yet it is the oldest fraternal organization on Lane College Campus. Alpha Gamma Chapter was organized at Lane in 1922.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority is an organization composed of young ladies of similar ideals, who have banded themselves together for the purpose of doing their share of making the world a better place in which to live. Our slogan “Greater Service—Greater Progress” is expressed in our greatest contributions.

It was on February 21, 1936, when Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., increased its membership with the birth of Beta Pi chapter Lone College. Ten young men were accepted as charter members. Bros. J. T. Beck, and Bertram Corathers being sponsors.

The organization of the Greek Letter Fraternity among Negro College Men has been one of the inevitable re-results of the development of life among Negroes in America. Beta Pi chapter realizes the vision of the founders of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Day by day some forward step is taken.

As we undertake any project we think of our Fraternity aims: Manly deeds, Scholarship, and love for all mankind. These we shall forever hold aloft.

The Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was the first incorporated Negro Fraternity, having been founded January 5, 1911 at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. Since the founding of the fraternity many undergraduate and graduate chapters have been set up at colleges, universities and cities. The members of these chapters have striven to uphold those high ideals of Kappa which it achieved.

Beta Lambda Chapter was granted its charter at the Grand Chapter Meeting of 1939. Since that time the members of Beta Lambda Chapter have had its fat and lean years, those lean years being due to unavoidable circumstances. Now the chapter is in its glory and striving to hold high the banner of Kappadom.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

At Lane College we feel that physical education is a procedure used in education to bring about useful changes in human conduct to the end that a more wholesome and better integrated personality results. Thus though it may be said that it is developing the physical make-up of the individual, at the same time it is a means to educating the individual.

The major purposes of physical education then becomes the identical with the purposes of all education. It aims at the same general outcomes as do the other departments in the college. In the main it is considered educational, the only difference being the content used, the methods developed to teach the selected content, and the scope and extent of the results.

The program at Lane consists of the fundamental skills, games and sports, intramural and intercollegiate athletics, physically handicapped.
