Sponsor of the 1953 Seniors

Determination, courage, devotion, and plenty of energy, are the stepping stones to the stairway of success. With these “Golden Possessions”, and the willingness to continue to work — success is yours.

One with these possessions is Miss Equilla Terrelle, sponsor of the Senior Class of 1953. She received her B.S. degree from Tougaloo College, and M.A. in 1951 from Columbia University. Miss Terrelle has served as instructor in Home Economics at Lane College since September, 1951.

A salute to such a devoted individual
FROM THE EDITOR

In presenting this the 1963 Lanite, we have attempted to portray incidents and events which we hope in years to come will bring pleasant and fond memories to those of us that ponder through the foregoing pages.

We express our thanks and appreciation for the untiring work of Miss Equella Terrelle and Mr. Herman Stone, Jr., whose guidance and assistance cannot be measured in mere words. To the volunteer workers who burned the midnight oil that this publication be made possible, we extend our gratitude.

It is the hope of the Senior class that with this annual many will be reminded of both the friendships and experiences gained while at Lane College, and will remember them as a period of education, maturity, and inspiration.

LANE'S HISTORY

In the year of 1870, Negro members of the M. E. Churches in the South organized the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church. This newly organized church appointed a committee to establish an institution of learning for people in the surrounding communities. During the next four years, although handicapped by the greatest epidemic and other difficulties, a four-acre plot of land in Jackson was purchased, and construction of the educational buildings proceeded. Since Bishop Isaac Lane, an outstanding churchman and leader, had spearheaded the project, it was decided by the committee that this institution should proudly bear his name. Hence the doors of Lane Institute were opened in 1882, having as its first principal, Mr. J. H. Harper, and the first sessions were held by Miss Jennie Lane.

In 1886, Lane Institute became Lane College, and the school was fortunate in having the help and guidance of beloved Bishop Lane during the first 55 years of its 66 years of existence.

In May, 1907, J. F. Lane, who had been connected with the school as a professor, was elected president. Dr. Lane devoted 37 years of his life to the education of Negro youth here at Lane College. The college continued to grow, and by 1938, the institution became accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. On December 11, 1944, the president, Dr. J. F. Lane, passed, and the Board of Trustees, upon notification of his death, appointed the Dean of the college, Prof. J. R. Shy, to serve as Acting President for the remaining part of the year.

Two other presidents, after the death of President Lane, served as administrators, each contributing in his own way to the growth and success of Lane College. The third administrator, President C. A. Kirkendoll, today is working with untiring efforts, realizing that better students make better citizens. Although President Kirkendoll has been with the college only 2½ years, he has already shown his capabilities in effective leadership, and under his administration great improvements have been made on the physical plants of the college. One of the country's outstanding young leaders in Religious Education, he is rendering invaluable services to Lane College, and today the administration, faculty, students, and friends stand united in the forward progress of Lane College.

DEDICATION

The Late Dean R. H. Sowell

We, the members of the Senior Class, proudly dedicate this 1963 edition of the Lanite to a great person who had a high moral, spiritual, and educational standing.

The late Dean Richard H. Sowell was a man of leadership, and a person of high esteem, thus this dedication is but a small way of expressing our appreciation of the guidance and leadership fostered during his presence here at Lane College.
Founder of Lane College

Bishop Isaac Lane

Our founder, Bishop Isaac Lane was born in Madison County, Tennessee, March 3, 1834. He joined the Methodist Church in 1854, was called to the ministry in the same year, and served as Pastor and Presiding Elder until 1878, when he was elected to the Episcopacy of the C. M. E. Church in Georgia. Bishop Lane presided over every Annual Conference that the Church has, and led in the establishment of the publication department of the C.M.E. Church. Widely known as a great missionary Bishop, he established the Conference of his Church in the Indian Territory, and in 1882, he founded Lane College. Married twice, he died at the age of 103.
What you have accomplished thus far has been achieved by a combination of hard work, intensive study, and a great deal of courage. You, as other college students, have lived in a "tailor-made" environment, different in many respects from the environment of the work-a-day world. However, during your four-year sojourn in the College community, you have adapted well and met in an adequate manner the many demands placed upon you.

If you carry this same combination of initiative, skill, and determination into the work-a-day world with you, we are confident you will adapt properly to your new environment, work efficiently, and achieve success proportionately in the days ahead.

The prayers and good wishes of the Lane College family go with you as you leave these hallowed grounds to take your places among the thousands of Lane's sons and daughters now making their contribution to mankind.

C. A. Kirkendoll,
President
My congratulations go to the Seniors, to the Lanite Staff and their sponsor, Miss Equilla Terrelle. To this valiant crew we are indebted for the “1953 Lanite” — a symbol of academic achievement and strength of character.

Lane College is happy to honor the class of 1953 with the Seal of the college, and it expects every Senior to bear the stamp of Christian Education as he pursues the abundant life. I know you will neither break faith with your Alma Mater nor with me.

The world is waiting for your intellectual and spiritual wealth. I salute you for the service that is yours to give.

CLASS POEM

ON LEAVING THEE, DEAR LANE

On leaving thee, Dear Lane
Our hearts are concerened and sad
Because the days we have spent with thee
Are the happiest we have had.

The experiences we have felt and shared
While being amid their gleam
'Twas a challenge for those who cared
To make their aims supreme.

We came as seekers of thy well of knowledge
To prepare ourselves for our future tasks
And into thy midst, thy beloved college
We came as bidders, our lots to cast.

And now the time has come
When we, as others, must from thee part
Fairest Lane, of our dreams,
We will cherish thee always in our heart.

Our dreams that once were vague
Are now, at last, in view
Our hopes, our griefs, our sorrows,
We have shared them all with you.

And as we go our separate ways
Into a future unknown
We will carry thy fighting spirit
And the courage you have always shown.

Dear Alma Mater, we love thee
And we pledge ourselves to you
For the bond of knowledge and devotion
Are our promises to always be true.

And when we turn to catch a gleam
Of wonderful days gone by forever
We shall, with courage still bright,
Forget thee, Dear Lane, Never.

—Gladys Hunter Clark
CLASS SONG

TO LANE

Thy glorious light of yestermorn
Awoke our hearts to love
Thy spirit was born within our hearts
Gentle as a dove
Which led the noble souls of a far and darker past
To strike the anvil, and to hold until the triumphant blast.

This, Dear Ole Lane, shall always dwell
Thy spirit in our lives
Its grace and beauty we'll feel
And freely give, Ole Lane
And to their truth, and ideal on life's battlefield
We'll stagger, fail, we'll wander too
But we will never yield
We'll stagger, fail, we'll wander too
But we will never yield.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority is an organization composed of young ladies of similar ideals, who have banded themselves together for the purpose of doing their share of making the world a better place in which to live.

Our Slogan, "Greater Service — Greater Progress", is expressed in our greatest contributions.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority is the youngest of the Greek organizations, having been organized in 1922. Yet it is the oldest fraternal organization on Lane College Campus. Alpha Gamma Chapter was organized here at Lane in 1933.

On January 16th, 1968, a group at Howard University initiated the movement of Greek letter sororities among Negro Women in America. From this time on, the sorority gained in number as well as in strength of purpose, and in 1913, the Alpha Kappa Sorority was incorporated.

Beta Chi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was established at Lane College in 1939, with an aim to cultivate and promote high scholastic averages and ethical standards among college young women.
