IT'S HOW WE SAY IT

Starting out on the right foot is just as important as making the first step. We have all enjoyed the companionship that working together induces. We believe we started right and we have tried to keep the best foot forward while making more steps in the right direction. So we have come this far on the way.

And we're glad to get the Aiko Seitzer, Cooks, and praise as we watched so anxiously "The Lanite" take shape and meaning. Our thanks to all who bought, sold, peeped, laughed, advised, oggivated, meddled, posed and "took" for the wonderful experience.
And truly, how does one go about treating a theme? Well, easily enough, you know. Once you've gotten an idea, just keep to the middle of the road, stay on the sunny side, and travel, travel along. That's why we think the Highway of Progress is real for 1954 at Lane College. Those who have come in jumped on the wagon and those who will leave will leave on a higher plane. And, too, many others will come and go, without doubt, beating pathways to success.

The 1954 Lomia is affectionately dedicated to Mrs. Edna Johnson Lane, scholar, traveler, author, lecturer, Christian worker, and distinguished alumna of Lane College. Mrs. Lane has served the College in many capacities and her lofty soul and keen mind have enriched the student body for more than a quarter of a century.

It is in appreciative recognition of the debt of gratitude we owe Mrs. Lane that we dedicate this book to one who so nobly embodies in character and achievement — the ideals of Lane College.

The 1954 Graduating Class
Lane College
Jackson, Tennessee

Dear Seniors:

It is with pride and joy that I greet you in the final quarter of your study at Lane College.

You hold, as a group, a unique place in my heart that no class will be able to occupy, for your is the first to complete four full years under my administration. I remember with great fondness those bright-eyed, but frightened freshmen who symbolized the mixed emotions of the new President who greeted them that hot September day back in 1950. Since that time, I have watched you master lesson by lesson, problem by problem until now you stand on the threshold of graduation. You justly deserve the congratulations that are in order, and I generously extend mine!

Your general theme, "The Highway of Progress", has been wisely chosen. The highway you have trodden since being here truly has been one of progress. I am informed by our Registrar's Office that as of May Lane College will give to America and the world sixty young men and women well qualified to take their places among those working for the uplift of humanity. We are confident that you will give the full measure of your service and devotion to life's worthy objectives.

As you leave these sacred grounds, remember the good wishes and prayers of the "Lane Family" go with you.

Very truly yours,

C. A. Kirkendoll

Congratulations Arlena - Mr. & Mrs. Sam Moore

The 1954 Lomite Staff has attempted to produce a yearbook of quality rather than quantity. The Staff has put forth its best efforts to give to you, the college community, a great annual.

Again, we wish to thank our advisors, Mrs. Gloria H. Glover, and Mr. Robert L. Potter, for their suggestions, criticisms and time spent working with us. Mr. Herman Bane, Jr., our adviser and photographer, for his excellent pictures and indispensable help.

If the Lomite did not come up to your expectations, it is not due to the fact that it did not have competent guidance.

P.S. To our newcomer Dr. A. S. Powe we say "Welcome Traveler!"

CLAUDE MALONE, Editor

...and so we say, this is the short and long of it... "Your best route is through Lomie College... turn to the right on green and we!"
