A Job Well Done

17684
Only now, standing at the exit of our college careers, can we fully appreciate the worth and truth of the statement that these have been the best years of our lives—not easy years, but good ones. Four years we have devoted to the search for knowledge and wisdom in the hope that we may gain insight enough to build our lives, richly, from within and foresight enough to enrich our world from without.

We wish to thank our administrators, teachers and counselors for their diligent moulding of educative habits within us which will serve us well in the great arena of life. Gratitude also goes to all in the college community who contributed to the social, cultural, and religious life of the institution.

It is the desire of the Lanite Staff to dramatically record memories and experiences which have meant most to the members of the graduating class. It is toward this end that we present the 1956 LANTITE.

Behind us is what we know and love, before us—the unknown which we face bravely as true sons and daughters of LANE. Within us we have built worlds to meet the worlds of which we know not.

This is our life.

MRS. CORA MARTIN WINCHESTER

"Lord help me live from day to day
In such a self forgetful way
That when I kneel to pray
My prayer will be for others."

The above has been the constant prayer of Mrs. Cora Martin Winchester, President Emeritus of the Women’s Missionary Society, First Episcopal District, C.M.E. Church.

Mrs. Winchester, wife of Dr. J. W. Winchester, Memphis, Tennessee, has literally given her life for "others," having guided and molded the lives of hundreds of children and young people during her forty-four years of public school teaching in West Tennessee, and having led the women of her local church, presiding elder’s district, annual conference and Episcopal District to higher levels of missionary service. She is known for her great missionary spirit, which has manifested itself in thousands of dollars in scholarship funds raised under her supervision for worthy young men and women to attend Lane College and similar amounts raised for mission preachers and churches.

It is in recognition of Mrs. Winchester’s loyalty and contribution to missionary education that we the members of the graduating class dedicate the 1956 edition of the Annual, with the hope that her beautiful and unselfish life will be a source of inspiration to all Lantites.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
LANE COLLEGE
JACKSON, TENNESSEE

March 1, 1956

To the 1956 Graduates:

Lane College has set before you the "Vision of Greatness". During these four years it has given new meaning and significance to your life by helping you acquire liberal attitudes and by guiding the development of your abilities in such a way as to increase self-determination and self-realization. Ever live true to that "vision"!

IN MEMORIAM

MR. ATHAL M. SMITH

It is to someone gone yet with us still, we hold in our reverence as one of good will. It is for you, father of our ALMA MATER, we dedicate this page.

ALMA MATER
"FAIR LANE"

Fair Lane, we love thee, love thee well.
It is of thee we love to tell,
Of friendly years of college life,
Of college years with pleasure rife;
Of years we look upon with joy,
Of years we could but help employ;
Our minds in ecstasy when soon
We would begin this happy tune.
Long may our loved college live

For we our valued help will give,
And give it too with might and main
To that dear school we love, our Lane.
When out upon life's rugged sea,
We then will turn and think of thee,
We'll think of ways we spent with you.
Of days we cheered the Red and Blue,
When troubles rise to dim our way,
We'll know no other words to say.

And say them over and over again,
We love thee, dearest, fairest Lane.
And may our loved college live
For we our valued help will give,
And give it too with might and main
To that dear school we love, our Lane.

Words by Athal M. Smith.
