The sign was laid out in bricks and the grass was dug and left ready.

HOME

Miss Lane College was given her Koke and Crown.

COMING-1958

Mrs. Kirkendoll, First Lady, came down the line to greet the many Royal Ladies of the court at the Big Reception.

At the end of the line Dr. Kirkendoll, the president, greets Miss Dragonne, Emilia Simmons.
HOME COMING

Miss Bragg poses with Captain Hill.

Miss B. Brooks Campbell poses with W. Street, Vice President.

Students covered in the line to greet the honored guests.

Faculty member G. L. Robinson.

Offered a welcoming greeting.

Students, dressed in their best party clothes, make small talk while waiting for refreshments.
HOME COMING

The crowd was an enormous one and the heat was quite warm.

In the rear of the President and the Dean. It can be seen that the heat is on.

Before game time the crowd on edge with crack performances.

Then the Town Warned Up.

Merry High School Band - especially sharp in the parade.

Toyota Mississippi Band is always a favorite and did they keep it up.

Miss Magnolia was in her glory in a convertible with her attendants.

The Little Ones got in the act also, and they caused quite a "hoop" with them.

There were so many cars it was hard to see the floats.

The Sophomore float came into view. The page came from Greek history.

Several High School Bands came to the Campus to participate in the parade.

Leading the line of floats and bands was the President and his family.

The Kappa float had three pages, the float was Bubba Lane, 2nd from The Guy Moore, 3rd The Kappa Sweetheart.

Couch lined the streets to see the bands and floats.

Mr. Jones served as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion.

Mrs. Howard gave the introductory presentation.

Although there were many others who participated on the program of the Faculty Artist Series, it was not possible to include them all here. These few represent the type presentations that were offered.

Mrs. Avant won top applause of the evening with her dramatic reading.

Mr. Alwin played the part of Ford and Mrs. Mongione, Elizabeth in the production of 'Othello' and Ford...

Mrs. Mongione smiles in quietly dignity from her throne.

Dr. Poppenee gave as his selection a vocal rendition of 'Dusty Road.'

Miss Dineho played a piano selection.
ANNUAL FACULTY CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mr. Jackson, chairman of the Social Committee, does his duty by decorating the Yale tree.

Mrs. Kirkendoll smiles approval as she accepts a large gift from the tree.

Mrs. From serves cakes as the group enjoys food and fun.
