Under the able coaching of Paul V. Collins, the Dragons have won 9 games and lost 8. The team consists of one junior, six sophomores, and five freshmen. This team has superior rebounding power in Ervin Bond, Joymie Springfield, Lester Hooks, Edwin Butler and Johnnie Lee. The four guards consisting of Claude Bailey, Jimmy Northern, Jerry Morris and Will Shaw have certainly shown finesse in their ball handling and formidable shooting power.

The leading scorer for the Dragons is Will Shaw with a 31.5 average. This average makes Will the number 3 scorer in the nation among small colleges. With the tremendous show of basketball power and skill this year and with the returning lettermen, we have expectations for another great year for 1963.

"HOMECOMING"

This pre-homecoming scene showing a bar line is a happy one for Lanitra, and for the queen of football Miss Nancy Grimes. This scene is a prelude to the one below.

There seems to be no end to the pleasures of the Lanitra in this post-homecoming scene as they bury the Pick Bulldogs.
The Freshman Counselors for the year 1961-62 did a magnificent job in orienting the freshmen to the campus. They even presented a program for the freshmen showing them how college students should dress and conduct themselves. Freshman counselors are selected on the basis of their personalities and leadership abilities. It is an honor for any student to be selected for a counselor. Don’t you wonder who will be a freshman counselor for the year 1962-63?

Standing: Miss Fanny Harris, Mrs. Willie Fuglan, Mrs. Bertha Collins.

It seems as though these women are competing with the presence but I'm sure that they would admit readily that this assumption is false.

THE LAST WORD

Another year has passed and the events pictured in this book have become part of the memories of college life. Our education continues all the days of our life, but this last year shall come not again.

We are grateful to Mr. Tom Yokley and Mr. Bob Gilbreath, representatives of the Taylor Publishing Company, for their many services and to Town and Country Studios for their photographic service.

Our special indebtedness to Mr. Thomas Hoyt, who bore the major burdens and responsibilities of this yearbook after the editor withdrew. Thanks also to the three staff members who served—Earl Wade, Doyce Lee, and Jacqueline Bassley.

And so the school year 1961-62 comes to an end.
