January 27, 1964

To Members of the 1964 Senior Class:

It is always a delightful pleasure to extend greetings to members of a graduating class. I take no less joy in saluting the young men and young women of the 1964 graduating class who have reached this milestone in their college career. This goal has been reached not without sacrifice, struggle and a sense of achievement.

I have personally watched the members of this class grapple with problems and emerge mentally, spiritually and morally stronger because of the encounter. I hope each of you will face the problems of life in this same manner.

As you follow your different pursuits, I hope you will have fond memories of the grand ole days on Lane’s campus. I am confident you will reflect credit upon your Alma Mater as you face the days, months, and years ahead. May God be with you always, I am

Very truly yours,

C. A. Kir Kendoll
President

Foreword

The Y'd Lancer, which portrays the college highlights during the school year, is produced as a result of tireless efforts on the part of the staff and its dedicated advisors.

We hope that each page will show you the progress Lake College has made, and the great enthusiasm with which the faculty, staff, and student body have worked. "Not what our college can do for us, but what can we do for our college?"

THE SACRIFICE
I have conditioned only to excel
I have given up only to gain
I have retreated only to advance
I have surrendered only to win

Seems all that I do is really not
And all that is not really and truly is,
What more could a Sphinxman desire?
What more than to become an ALPHA?
