From the grandfather of all buildings, the Administration Building, to its newest addition, Jubilee Hall (residence for young men), Lane has expanded its physical facilities to meet the needs of an ever-growing student body.
Part of the physical plant of campus. When an alumnus thinks of his college life, usually the first picture coming to his mind is that of one of the buildings.

The architectural contrast between Cleaves Hall, Jubilee Hall and Smith Hall is evidence of long-time tradition as well as recent progress.

Academic Program

OBJECTIVES
Lane College offers its students opportunities to prepare for many professional pursuits. Its curriculum offerings are designed to give students, in addition to a sound and thorough training in their chosen fields, the basic skills and knowledge necessary for a better understanding of the changing economic, political, and cultural life of our times.

INSTRUCTION
The academic program provides for instruction in twenty-six areas, embracing the humanities, natural sciences, and the social sciences. During the first two years the student follows a curriculum which is designed to provide him with a broad liberal education. The core of courses constituting the curriculum are drawn from the three areas of knowledge—humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences. The last two years are devoted to obtaining greater depth and breadth in two or more fields of the student's choosing. The student may choose a major from any one of eleven areas, and a minor from fourteen areas.

The college awards two degrees, the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Science. The Bachelor of Arts is conferred upon those students majoring in Elementary Education, English, History, Music, Religion, or Sociology. Students majoring in Biology, Business Education, Chemistry, Health, and Physical Education, or Mathematics receive the Bachelor of Science degree.

FACULTY
A combined full and part-time faculty of more than sixty enables the college to maintain a faculty-student ratio of 1:19.

In addition to scholastic achievement and proven teaching ability the college seeks to obtain persons who can contribute to the fulfillment of the purposes and objectives of Lane College.

Religious Life

The academic, religious, social and cultural programs of the college are designed to develop mature, self-reliant young men and women capable of happy successful living in our changing social order. The college seeks to foster through the Student Christian Association (SCA) activities designed to contribute to the spiritual growth of its students.

The SCA is interdenominational in character. It aims to present opportunities for all students: (1) to participate creatively in worship, study missions, recreation, and Christian social action; (2) to grow in knowledge and understanding of the Gospel; (3) to stimulate, improve, and develop skills to communicate the truth and power of the Gospel; and (4) to practice continuously Christian discipleship in their personal daily living and present day affairs.

Physical Plant

The 32 acre campus is situated in the northeast section of the City of Jackson—"The Hub of West Tennessee." Its facilities include an administration building which houses the administrative offices and some classrooms, a library building, a gymnasium, a science building, a business education building, a music building, a new student union building which houses the boarding facilities, eight faculty residence houses and one apartment building consisting of eight units. A five story, air-conditioned Men's Residence Center is the latest addition to the campus. The college and city are conveniently accessible by airlines, railroads and bus lines. Major high ways serving the city are Interstate 40 and U.S. 70 and 45.

Student Activities

Lane College encourages participation in student activities because of its conviction that properly guided and conducted, they have significant educational value for the individual stu dent in self-education and citizenship. The Dean of Men and Dean of Women are the Co-Administrators and advisors of non-instructional services and activities. Under their direction, the following specific personal services are available: personal and group counseling; maintenance of cumulative personal records of individual and groups; direction of social life and living conditions; provision for, and guidance of, extracurricular activities; orientation programs for freshmen and transfer students; approval and coordination of all student groups, organizations, enterprises, and trips. The student activities include: The Student Government Association, National Honor Societies, College Band, College Choir, inter-collegiate football, basketball, and track, intramural sports, departmental club, and Greek-letter fraternities and sororities.

Dedication

It has been said that behind every great man there stands a great woman. Certainly, Bishop B. Julian Smith, chairman of our Board of Trustees and in whose honor Smith Hall was named, is no exception. It is indeed an honor for us to pay homage to the great woman behind Bishop Smith by dedicating the '68 Lanie to her. Mrs. Hermione Jackson Smith has been a great source of strength for the Bishop and has aided him in every way possible.

Mrs. Smith was born in New Orleans, Louisiana. The daughter of Andrew and Susie Jackson. She attended grade school and college work in New Orleans but moved to Chicago, Illinois, where she completed her college work. She received a degree in Education with emphasis on Kindergarten-Primary teaching from Chicago Teachers College. For many years she taught in the Chicago School System.

Recently, she has traveled in Europe and Africa attending the World Methodist Conference in Oslo, Norway, in 1961; the World Council of Christian Education in Belfast, Ireland; the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches in France; and visited Rome, Italy, in 1962; the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches in Enugu, Nigeria, in 1965 and that same year visited in Ghana, Egypt, and the Holy Land; and the World Conference of Church and society in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1966.

She has also visited London, England; Belgium, Denmark and Holland.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is a national Greek-letter society, organized at Howard University in Washington, D.C., in January, 1908. In a period of fifty years, Alpha Kappa Alpha grew from one undergraduate group of nine members, to a national organization with an active membership of more than ten thousand women. The undergraduate chapters now draw members from more than 130 accredited colleges, and graduate members are organized into 169 chapters located in thirty-six of the fifty states, Liberia, West Africa and The Bahamas.

The present structure, character and personality of Alpha Kappa Alpha have been determined not only by the natural growth of the organization itself but by the pressures of changing conditions in the society in which it exists. As these two factors have changed, her membership standards—high scholarship, leadership, service, exemplary character—and her program goals have been continually and progressively reinterpreted, so that the personal benefits which members derive from their affiliation are balanced and counter-balanced against the values deriving from the organization to the community of which it is a part.
Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is a greek-letter society, having 275 chapters located in 37 states including Alaska and the Republics of Haiti and Liberia with more than 25,000 members. The sorority was founded at Howard University on January 13, 1913 to establish a society to promote high cultural, intellectual, and moral standards among its members.

The high standards and ideals set by the founders have attracted to the ranks of the sorority thousands of women representing the finest in womanhood, whose individual and collective contributions to society have proved the importance of Delta Sigma Theta.
Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated, was organized November 12, 1922 on Butler University campus in Indianapolis, Indiana, by Mary Lou Gardner and six other school teachers: Dorothy Hanley Whiteside, Vivian White Marberry, Nannie Mae Johnson, Hattie Mae Dulin Redford, Bessie M. Downey Martin, and Cabena McClure. Since its founding, more than 120 undergraduate and graduate chapters have been established throughout the country.

The purpose of this sorority for women is expressed in its slogan “Greater Service, Greater Progress.” Activities are encouraged that will further in every way possible the advantages of its members intellectually, morally, and socially.

Neophytes of Sigma Gamma Rho
Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.—the first fraternity of color, was founded on December 4, 1906 at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

Beginning with its seven founders, more than 30,000 men have been initiated into Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

 Interracial since 1945, there are now 330 chapters in 40 states, the District of Columbia, British West Indies, Europe and Africa.

Alpha Phi Alpha is bound together with common loyalty in the struggle for human dignity; with common causes for cultural enrichment; and with historic accomplishments in educational advancements.

Since 1906, Alpha Phi Alpha has stood dedicated to the principles on which this nation was founded and everywhere Alpha men have many victories of benefit to the country, but its most important service has been in the development of the scholars and creative leaders who will assist our country in meeting the challenges of the future.
KAΨ

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was founded January 5, 1911 at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, being incorporated by the State of Indiana on April 15, 1911. It was first known as the Kappa Alpha Nu Fraternity. In 1914 the name was changed to Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. The efforts of three men, Elder W. Diggs, Byron K. Armstrong, and John M. Lee, were outstanding in the early development of the fraternity.

Beta Lambda Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi was founded on the campus of Lane College in 1940, by the 12 W. B. S. (Would be Scroller Club.)

The fundamental purpose of Kappa Alpha Psi is achievement. Kappa Alpha Psi strives to obtain for all its members all of the benefits which accrue from membership in a modern college brotherhood.

ΦΒΣ

The idea of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was conceived on Beale Street in Memphis, Tennessee, in the summer of 1919, by the late A. Langston Taylor. The tiny acorn from which the giant oak of Phi Beta Sigma has grown was planted on Friday, January 9, 1914, at Howard University in Washington, D.C., by the late A. Langston Taylor, Leonard F. Morse, and Charles I. Brown along with nine others. The ideals are Brotherhood, Service, and Scholarship. Three National Programs are: Bigger and Better Business, Education and Social Action. The Motto is “Culture for Service, Service for Humanity.”

The Delta Epsilon Chapter was established at Lane College on Sunday, February 6, 1966. Rowan Neal, who was made in the spring of 1964, was the first Sigma brother to be initiated on Lane College’s campus. The charter brothers are James Cutter, Roy L. Manning, Lafayette McKinnie, James V. Mitchell, Rowan A. Neal, Hope Norman, J. A. Robertson and Howard L. Wallace.
Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded November 17, 1911. It was founded by Oscar J. Cooger, Ernest E. Just, Frank Coleman, and Edgar A. Love. Its purpose is to unite men with a strong bond of brotherhood and similar ideas. The cardinal principles are Manhood, Uplift, Perseverance and Scholarship. The Fraternity was founded on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C. The Progressive Kappa Sigma Chapter was founded at Lane College December 3, 1937.

The Fraternity has two major projects, the Annual Talent Hunt and the National Achievement Week. The purpose of the Talent Hunt is to promote the discovery of new talent. During National Achievement Week the Fraternity presents awards to the outstanding citizens of the community.

"Miss Omega," Castle Curry, awaits her float for the Homecoming parade.
