LANE COLLEGE DRAGONS
S.I.A.C. CO-CHAMPIONS
This year the Dragons had one of their best seasons in the history of the college. The basketball Dragons, coached by former All American, Will Shaw, provided many a thrill for Lancers as they went undefeated on the home court racing to an S.I.A.C. Co-Championship. The Dragons lost only one game in conference plays and won eleven. The Dragons overpowered most of their opponents with their explosive offense scoring over 100 or more points in 12 of their 21 games. Leading the scoring parade was Daniel Cunegin, a junior guard who averaged 22.4 points per game. The second leading scorer was senior Roy Manning who averaged 18 points and 22 rebounds. Manning led the S.I.A.C. in rebounding all season and is a candidate for Small College All-American. The Dragons received valuable aid from reserve freshman Ralph Jones, a forward who averaged 15.7 points per game. Other Dragons who made worthwhile contributions were James Bradford, Leroy Tyus and Jerry Mullins.

Beginning with the 1963-64 school year Lane College and Nebraska Wesleyan University of Lincoln, Nebraska entered into an agreement whereby the two institutions would exchange four students during one semester each school year. The program is designed to provide students with the opportunity of living and studying in an environment which is different from their own. Lane's participants are chosen from applicants whom the college feels can best represent the ideals and the philosophy of the college.
