When out upon life's rugged sea,
SPRING; GET WITH IT

What was it about Spring that brought an entirely different atmosphere to campus? What was it that made a student want to skip class, play a round of tennis, or indulge in a cool drink? Whatever it was, it made you want to "Get with it." The season brought with it the arduous task of finding things to do; either catching up on studies or enjoying Spring's wonderful weather.

Spring was a mad array of balls, pageants, and many varied activities. Hand in hand couples lazily lounged around, playing ball or just looking at conspicuous signs of Spring, the buds on trees and the picturesque variety of flowers. But whatever the salient signs of Spring were, the distractions from studies were at a peak, and took their toll, regardless.

Sighted in front of the dormitories and other buildings we see signs of a pleasant illness—Spring Fever, which is in every aspect an indication.

Soaking up some rays, a cold drink, or pleasant walk or quiet talk would relieve your mind from the hectic routine of classes.

The climate enhanced the fever with warm days and cool nights, as the hot and humid air created unbearable conditions for study in the dorms. Refuge was sought either in the air conditioned library or Student Union Building, where rest from the humidity seemed inevitable. If the student chose the latter, he invariably ended up in a lively card game in the SUB.

The impromptu ball sessions in dormitories usually deteriorated into later hours of study. With the band and choir bringing forth in concert beautiful and enchanting melodies, the music of Spring rang loud and clear.

To seniors, the harmonious notes brought forth by "Pomp and Circumstance," left everlasting memories as college days slowly faded away and Spring left its footprints to future endeavors and accomplishments as remaining students "got with it."

AND HANDS THAT DREAMED—
AND CLOCKS THAT HAD NO HOUR HAND.
We'll think of days we spent with you.

Of days we cheered the Red and Blue

When troubles rise to dim our way,
We'll know no other words to say.

And say them over and over again.
We love thee dearest, fairest Lane.

And may our loved college live
SUMMER: WHAT A WAY TO SPEND A VACATION

As students hurriedly packed and left campus after Spring’s final exams, the last notes of “Pomp and Circumstance” faded into the vague past. The Summer gloriously brought its weary travelers to spend a quiet vacation among tents, assignments and humid classrooms. Some were freshmen co-ops who not only got a taste of college before going to work but also helped mobilize Summer’s atmosphere. A few weekends of picnics, swimming in nearby pools, bowling, or baseball broke the long hot weeks of study. Many games of tennis and volleyball were played to relieve the tension from quizzes. If given a chance, Summer sessions could have easily been dead, but fortunately adventurous minded freshmen enlivened it. Occasional dances enlightened Summer pleasures.

The freshmen were soon taught the science of making good grades as the umpires seemed to give all the breaks to the lanky in the softball games, as the “Long Hot Summer” came to a close.

WHEN THE MEANS BECAME AN END
AND THEN THE END BECAME A MEANS.

"Beauty"

Beauty, that underlying principle that through the ages has governed men's souls, and directed their emotions. It is the everlasting medium of exchange between fal- lacious imagery and the reality.

Thus we now shall take a brief trip into the refreshing but exclusive "Beauty and Charm Section"—beginning with Forrestine Cook, WSHA's 1970 Cover Girl.

Feast your eyes now upon true eloquence and enjoy ...
SHE WALKS IN BEAUTY

She walks in beauty, like the night
Of cloudless climes and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes:
Thus mellow'd to that tender light
Which heaven to gaudy day denies
And on that cheek and o'er that brow,
So soft, so calm, yet eloquent,
The smiles that win, the tints that glow,
But tell of days in goodness spent,
A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent
