Facing A Polluted World With A Unique Mind
IN MEMORIAM, J. T. H.

For ten years, he walked among us
quietly,
smilingly.

To his colleagues, he was "Hally";
to a decade of Lane students,
Mr. Halliburton,
able and concerned science professor.

Shortly after the Spring semester began, he died. We were dazed, shocked, saddened. His flair, his method, his smile are gone, but the memory of James Thomas Halliburton will endure.

To his memory, this book, the 1972-73 LANITE, is dedicated.

SO LONG DEAR LANE
I'VE GOT TO GET AWAY

I've got to get away from this place of hell,
I've got to get away right now,
I've got to get away not tomorrow or the next day,
I've got to get away now.
I've got to get away so I can breathe again,
To a place where there's no air pollution.
I've got to get to a place where to my problems there's a solution.
I've got to get to a place, where love
and happiness are a part of breathing.
I've got to get to this place, where nothing is decaying.
I've got to get to this place, where the light of joy is always lit.
I've got to get to this place, now.
But the problem is — where is it?

BLACK IGNORANCE

Blacks with ignorance can be a dangerous thing. For instead of bringing love and peace, it could bring pain. Blackness could bring harmony to our nation but, with ignorance, causing one to hate, practice evil deeds and racial discrimination. There's nothing wrong with becoming aware and getting involved. But, be sure your ignorance is under control before you create another problem to be solved.
