ALEX HALEY DAY

Haley To Appear At Lane May 21

Pulitzer prize-winner Alex Haley, author of the critically and popularly acclaimed "Roots," will visit Lane College May 21. Announcement of Haley's appearance was made this week by Dr. Herman Stone Jr., president of Lane.

Haley's visit to Jackson is part of a three-day statewide tour to honor the 50-year-old writer who grew up in Henning.

Haley's parents, the late Simon and Martha Thibeau Haley, were students at Lane. The couple, who were both members of the campus's senior class of 1934, met while they were students at Lane. Haley was born in Henning, N.Y., but lived in Henning with his mother and maternal grandmother while his father attended graduate school.

It was in Henning where Haley first heard the stories of his African ancestor, Kunta Kinte, who was kidnapped by white slavers and brought to America. Haley's research and writing on "Roots" took nearly 12 years. An English writer has recently questioned the validity of some of Haley's information in the book, but Haley has denied the allegations of the writer.

Haley is planning to write a sequel to "Roots" about his search for his ancestry. He is also the author of "The Autobiography of Malcolm X."

A "BIG DAY" IN THE HISTORY OF LANE COLLEGE

1) Haley and followers tour the campus.
2) Haley prepares for Special Convocation.
3) Haley receives the Doctor of Humanities Degree (D.H.) from Lane College President, Dr. Herman Stone Jr.
4) Haley and platform guests sing "Lift Every Voice and Sing."

LET ME BE POOR, HUMBLE AND IN RAGS, BUT LEAVE ME MY PRIDE.
TAKE AWAY MY HOME, MY CAR, MY BANK ACCOUNT, BUT DON'T MESS WITH MY PRIDE.
TALK ABOUT ME, SCORN AND ABUSE ME, TORTURE, OPPRESS, AND MISUSE ME, BUT LEAVE MY PRIDE.
FOR PRIDE IS ME; WITHOUT IT I AM NOTHING; WITHIT I'M ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING; THAT'S WHY "YOU" CAN'T DESTROY ME! . . .

I HAVE MY PRIDE!

I want to teach my students how
To live this life on earth
To face its struggles and its strife
And to improve their worth
Not just the lesson in a book
Or how the rivers flow
But how to choose the proper path
Wherever they may go
To understand eternal truth
And know the right from wrong
And gather all the beauty of
A flower and a song
For if I help the world to grow
In wisdom and in grace
Then I shall feel that I have won
And I have filled my place
And so I ask your guidance
That I may do my part
For character and confidence
And happiness of heart.
