Founded, 1882, by the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church of America, as a high school, under direction of Bishop Isaac Lane, with his daughter as principal. It became Lane Institute in 1883. Its first president, Rev. T. F. Saunders, served from 1887 to 1903. It received its present name in 1895.
Dedication

The Lanium staff dedicates the "1969" edition of the Lanium to Mr. James A. Cooke. Mr. Cooke, former Athletic Director at Lane retired in July, 1979. Mr. Cooke came to Lane in 1961 as Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach. In 1962, he also assumed the duties of Head Football Coach and Track Coach in addition to basketball and teaching health and physical education. He also served as Acting Chairman of the Division of Education, as well as having served as Dean of Men. Mr. Cooke is a man of worthy achievements, honors, and leadership. We the staff join everyone in saying, thank you Mr. Cooke for your time, patience and understanding.
