WE'RE STRIVING FOR THE FUTURE.

Through the doors of the J.K. Daniel Library a student can find the key to his future. It is the pathway that leads to knowledge, growth, understanding, and success. Many Latinos have passed this way and many others will pass this way again while striving for their future.

LANE COLLEGE BAND
WE ARE PROUD OF YOU.
DEDICATION

The founding Fathers of Lane College often expressed their favor in an old Wesley hymn.

To serve the present age, my calling to fulfill,
O may it all my powers engage to do my Master's Will.

Nothing can be written which more significantly and succinctly summarizes the purpose and ongoing goals of Lane College. The lines convey the purpose and intent to serve the needs of each generation in its present age, based upon a religious mandate—"The Master's Will."

And now as Lane College celebrates one hundred years of serving the present age, a feeling of love and affection fill my soul, a feeling of praise and gratitude for the opportunity of having been a student trained by the great minds of those who have served through the years.

But best of all is the "thrill" that comes from just knowing that through many of these years I have touched the lives of College Presidents, Bishops, Lawyers, Doctors, Judges, Ministers, Teachers, Counselors, Social Workers, Dentists, Principals, Mental Health Workers, Missionaries, Clerks, Publishers, Authors, Realtors, Secretaries, Receptionists, Technicians, Nurses, Athletes and others—all of whom have walked the halls of these buildings, written their names in the history of this College and left with a foundation to support them in any endeavor attempted.

How sweet it is to have lived, to have shared your life with all the great beings who have passed this way. Lane College must continue to offer opportunity for all students with potential. Thus the College is seeking and will continue to seek new methods, new programs, grants and aid for all students.

The Teachers Creed

I believe in the boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow, that whatsoever the boy sows, the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance in the efficacy of school in the dignity of teaching and the joy of serving others.

I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as the pages of the printed book in lessons taught, not so much by precept as by example, in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head, in everything that makes life large and lovely.

THE FRUITS AND ROOTS OF LANE COLLEGE

Fruits fall to the ground from various trees.
Earth's gravity has a magnificent call.
You can observe the fruit by the kind of leaves.
Lane College has fruits for all.

You must first look real high.
To observe this luscious fruit.
This luscious fruit will catch your eye which comes through Lane's academic roots.

Throughout the land Lane's roots are found.
They've penetrated the whole wide world.
Lane's banner can never fall to the ground.
Her essence must be untied.

Throughout the land Lane's roots are spread.
Lane's branches are paying well.
Her fruits are above your head.
Academically, it's the best fruit ever filled.

These fruits are from hearts of men who've saturated their ignorant souls.
From this institution, knowledge never ends.
Lane's products will reach their goals.

This college appreciates your loyal help.
The help of yours and mine.
Let's help "Dear Lane," step by step.
She must reach a land sublime.

The ingredients are flavored and peppered well.
To whom may take a taste.
The trees and roots are not to tell
and the mind is a terrible thing to waste.

The fruits are bathed in pools of knowledge.
You may pluck them at your will.
That's why exists this college.
There are some vacancies some soul must fill.

The roots are anchored deep in ground.
If the tree is cut, the roots will spread.
You'll know from whence the tree was found.
This is proof, beyond a doubt.

Let's continue building on this spot.
Where Lane will continue to grow.
Let nothing come between this lot.
As generations come and go.

Let's help old Lane stay on the hill.
With our means, let's keep the pace.
Let the world know Lane's living still.
This kind of mine don't waste.

The fruits of Lane are hanging high.
Lane's fruits are hanging low.
Lane's fruits are always ripe.
They're everywhere you go.

These fruits are men and women too.
They've blazed the trail, and kept the pace.
As Lanties, this pertains to you.
The mind is a terrible thing to waste.

Just listen, to the president's clarion call.
You'll run patiently the race.
When you preserve the mind, you never fall.
Such minds will never waste.

Yes, the mind is nothing, no nothing to waste.
But occasionally it frequents the drain.
If we stop the momentum, that's winning the race.
From ignorance, we must refrain.
