Lane College was founded in 1882 by Bishop Isaac Lane.

Newly freed from the shackles of slavery,
Bishop Lane had a thirst for knowledge. Out of this thirst for education, was born the dream of educating his people.

Today Lane College stands as a living monument to its Founder Bishop Isaac Lane. Through Lane College Bishop Lane’s dream has become a reality.

Each year the Lane College family convenes to pay tribute to Bishop Isaac Lane on Founder’s Day.
