A Dream Come True

Ms. Lane College 1989-90: Shawn Terence Duff stands proudly with her family. Her supporters traveled from Indianapolis, Indiana to see her performance. This year's theme was entitled "Up Where We Belong."

The three pageant contestants wait to be judged on their beautiful evening gowns.

The Lane College Band played on this most auspicious occasion.

MISS LANE COLLEGE PAGEANT

It is an honor for me to represent one of the finest institutions of higher education whose mission and purpose are to prepare its students for life's challenges through a strong Christian academic program.

Winning the title of Miss Lane College is a dream come true. I take the title and responsibilities that come with it very seriously. Every opportunity that I have to speak on behalf of the college and the student body, I make it a point to speak positively and generate the genuine Christian spirit of Lane College.

During my reign I hope to work hard for the school. I would especially like to work in the area of recruiting more students to come to Lane College. Many young people are attracted to the larger institutions because they believe that all their needs can be met on a large campus. I believe that smaller institutions such as Lane offer what the larger campuses offer, but much, much more. Lane offers a typing of warmth and concern from instructors that cannot be found at a big college or university.

Shawn is definitely a vision of loveliness. She is not only a beautiful young lady, but she is talented. Along with being crowned Miss Lane, she was also presented the awards of Miss Congeniality, the swimsuit and talent award.

Quoted: "It was a great pleasure being a representative for the school that hold dear to my heart, Lane College." Tonya Stewart, Miss Lane College 1988-1989

This is just the beginning. The beginning of a new and brighter tomorrow. I would like to commend my staff for a job well done. It was through your perseverance and determination that brought us through this long and tedious task. THE BEST IS YET TO COME!!!!!!!
BLACK CONSCIOUSNESS

The spirit of the Night
Collapses upon my mind.

The spirit of the Night,
Dark in its presence,
Steals into my Life,
Arousing my Essence.

My strength to exist
Is an heritage of pride
Five thousand years back.

I am a Child of Mist
Collected from Africa’s side —
Beautifully Black.

"Winning is wonderful, but you can't win them all. Although our team had a difficult time winning this season, I never stopped supporting them. I will be a fan until the end." — Angie Boyce

The Lane College Basketball Team practiced long and hard in anticipation to win every game. Although they did not win them all, they did not give up without a fight. Sports enthusiasts were there rooting for the team at the games, and waiting for a team member to dunk the ball. Teamwork was a strength this team possessed.

HAPPY RETIREMENT
TEACHER OF THE YEAR

O.W. Heeitt Professor of Education
The fountain of knowledge never runs dry.

Help keep your campus beautiful. “Keep off the grass.”

Everyone is gone home, or they might just be doing something constructive.

Wonder if the birds want to come out and play?

Alma Mater

Fair Lane, we love thee, love thee well
It is of thee we love to tell,
Of friendly years of College life.
Of College years with pleasant strife;
Of years we look upon with joy,
Of years we could help employ.
Our minds in ecstasy when soon
We would begin the happy tune.

Long may our beloved College live
For we our zealous help will give,
And give it too with right and main.
To that dear school we love, our Lane.
When out upon life’s rugged sea,
We then will turn and think of thee,
We’ll think of days we spent with you,
Of days we cheered the Red and Blue.

When troubles rise to dim our way,
We’ll know no other words to say,
And say them over and over again.
We love thee dearest, fairest Lane.
And may our loved College live
For we our zealous help will give,
And give it too with might and main.
To that dear school we love, our Lane.
WE APPRECIATE YOU!!!
