Sophomores, Snow

Flake Ball
Senor Michael Johnson and Senora Pat Hamlett were the coordinators of the event.

Africa's exhibit showed many forms of art and even had samples of the food from this country.

Mrs. Bill, Francine Gray, Mr. Johnson, & Mr. Taylor were delighted to be participants of the experience.

Malaysia provided maps, books, and other material on their country.

Taiwan brought a statue of Confucius and other arts.

Among the many countries represented on this day, China seemed to stand out because of the beautiful colors used in their art.

Dragon football did not have a winning season, but they kept a winning attitude. Whenever they took the field to face an opponent they fought to win. They proved to themselves and the Lane College community that even in defeat you can win. Many of the players were asked "why are you playing for a losing team?" It would have been easy for them to quit playing football. There were an abundance of supporters waiting in the wings to support and encourage such a decision. The toughest thing was to stay and take the criticism while keeping a winning attitude. Hats off to the football team.

Dragons put their heads together to come up with a winning plan.
Lady Dragon Basketball
Some of Lane's students who are majoring in Communications got the rare opportunity to pose as news commentators.

The ladies put their bids for the men of their choice.

Jake helps one of the youngsters shoot a little hoop at the community center.

Chaucerly takes off his fur jacket to join the ladies the rest of the merchants.

Some of the football players chat at the Chapel service they lead.

Here is a little coffee to wake me up.

Renee serves herself and a friend at the choir fundraiser.

These handsome fellows are waiting until it is time for them to do their part in the program.
Mrs. Rippon and Sharmell sit patiently while waiting to judge the contest.

Michael Jordan in the making.

Mrs. Baylor looks at the paper that Reggie just gave her (center). While (left to right) Louis, Mrs. Askew, and James are trying to find out what it is all about.

This class is lacking over one of those whoopin’ tests.

What a lovely portrait.

Ronnie is an eye pleaser to the folks.

These students look like bread winners to me.
The Stars Shine!
I'll do whatever you ask me to.

Frank, the drum major for Lane's band is marching in stride for the homecoming parade.

Oh! Please don't hurt them.

We have a glow
Bright below
Like a flame

Yesterday
A night-shimmering,
A sun-drawn frame

And hence today
tread upon above the road we came

We march!
