SELF-STUDY

They are all so busy at work.

Yes, it's all about the business.

FACULTY AND STAFF TALENT SHOW

Mr. Kazempour and his group are breaking it down for the audience.
FACULTY WORKSHOP

Dr. Butler plans to use this technique in his next class. Mr. Moore has you thinking ah!

At the right Dr. Reginald Martin of Memphis State University gives the faculty a brushing course.

As the Lane College campus continues to grow so does the faculty by participating in workshops such as this to prepare themselves for the student of the 21st century.

YOU ARE NEVER TOO OLD TO LEARN!
STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Sidney Wilson explains why the students should buy his bricks.

The Coleman's show their beautiful display of African clothing.

BLACK BUSINESS DAY

Lane College co-sponsored Black Business Day with the Jackson-Madison County NAACP to encourage African-American entrepreneur. Many of students at Lane were inspired by the entrepreneurs and may become entrepreneurs themselves. Black Business was a success by giving support to establish African-American entrepreneurs and showing those who dream of being an entrepreneur that they can fulfill those dreams.
BLACK BUSINESS DAY

Angela looks as if she is talking the lady into a deep sleep.

CONGRESSMEN VISIT

Students gather with anticipation of hearing Congressman Tanner Espy speak.

Dr. Chambers introduces the guests speakers and tells the reason for their visit.

The students listen tentatively to Ms. Wilburn as she explains her models attire.

Espy said the Congressional Black Caucus opposes Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas, because Thomas' views are at variance with those of the African-American community. "Doesn't matter whether the man is white or black, he'll bit you the same," declared Espy.

Espy Tanner looks on.

CHEERLEADER'S MAN AUCTION

Tracy is hoping that a good looking young lady will make a big bid on him.

Mr. choice is too cool and he knows the ladies will bid on him.

Lane College students anxiously await for the auction to begin.

Ryan is looking very sneaky, what is he up to?

FOUNDERS DAY
CAMPUS ALL STARS

Mr. Kamu Kazempour, coach/coordinate of the Campus All Star Challenge (CASC) team, organized contests between Lane College teams in order to select students who will be representing the college at the next level of the CASC competition.

"This is the year of challenge. We are not a rookie team, but a team of experience. We will advance to the national championship tournament, ready to challenge any team all the way to the end," asserted Mr. Kazempour.

CASC is the first academic competition between Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU).

It is a question-and-answer game played between two teams of four players on each side, and points are scored by correct answers to questions asked by the moderator. The game challenges the intellect, knowledge and experience of the player. Questions cover areas such as history, mathematics, science, geography, English and current affairs.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT CENTER
Presents:
Resume Workshop
Career Day
BEEPERS
Jackson Area College Recruiting Conference
Career Day which is headed by the Human Development Center says it's a chance for the Lane students to get an opportunity to interact with the corporate world. It's a positive relationship between the students and the business community.

When asked about the effectiveness of the program, Alvin Harris Lane senior said that "it is only as good as the students want to make it". "Graduate school materials presented were very informative," asserted Eric Perry Lane junior. "Freshmen should start as early as possible to demonstrate sense of purpose because if the opportunity arises in the corporate world an employer will favor a familiar face known over the years," said Sherry Rubin Lane College student and a participant in last year's event.
Resume Writing Work-Shop is a chance for students to get their resume done. It is headed up by the HDC program. It is a must that you attend because without one you can not graduate from school. It is worth your time to go because when you go for a job interview you have to have a resume and the school will have one on file for you. So attend the next Resume Work-Shop it will be worth your time.
BLACK EXECUTIVE EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Ms. Williams give a speech to let students know you have to work hard at what you want in life.

JACKSON RECRUITING CONFERENCE

Some students who attended the conference are left to right: Aric Golden, Iris Curlee, Twan Alexander Chambers, Carmen Patterson, and advisor Kapel Kirkendoll.
THE AFRO AMERICAN MOTHER

She stands tall and proud for everyone to see.
A woman with such poise and great beauty.
She holds her head up high and never lets it down.
She has the kind of touch that can wipe away child's frown.
Her touch is one that is very unique.
She leaves a warm feeling to all she meets.

She can be all that you need in your weakest hour.
Her love and strength will give you much power.
The power to go on day by day and encourage your heart to go forth, never look away.

She is the kind of mother that can be a father, sister, brother, and your best friend.
The role of the Afro American Mother has no end.

For she stands tall and proud from century to century,
The Afro American Mother has poise and great beauty.
